

Year 5 - Chapter nine: The night of the turtles

1. How did they live after the plastic bottle incident? (Page 131/132)
2. What did Kensuke prefer now? (Page 132)
3. What did Michael keep hoping? (Page 132)
4. What did Michael keep doing? Where did he go? (Page 132)
5. How long did they play? (Page 136)
6. When did Kensuke find it easier to talk? (Page 137)
7. How often did they go out in the boat? (Page 137)
8. What did they do every day now? (Page 138/139)
9. How many turtles did Michael see? (Page 142)
10. How did he describe the beach with them all? (Page 142)

		True	False
1	They had stopped talking to each other
2	Michael would go to Watch Hill to look for ships
3	Kensuke knew why Tomodachi was there
4	When Michael thought of Tomodachi he thought of his mother
5	Kensuke knew that the right thing for M to do was to go home
6	Kensuke was angry because M had not told K what he was going to do
7	Kensuke promised to play football with Michael
8	They collected the wood for the new beacon from all over the island
9	Kensuke skills at football were very poor
10	Stella would take the ball away
11	Kensuke was only really happy to talk about his life when they were out fishing
12	Kensuke had a twin sister
13	Kensuke had gone to see Arsenal play when he was in London
14	Kensuke didn't want to leave because he thought his whole family were dead
15	Kensuke did not believe in Concorde		