

Chapter ten: Killer Men come

1. What did Michael do each morning? (Page 146)
2. What kind of pictures was Kensuke painting now? (Page 147)
3. What becomes 'easier when you are old like me'? (Page 149)
4. What did Kensuke do when Michael told him about the boat? (Page 150)
5. Was the junk close enough to the shore to see the smoke? (Page 150)
6. When did Kensuke finally let them all out? (Page 153)
7. What did they find on looking in the forest? (Page 153)
8. Who ambushed Michael and Kensuke? (Page 154)

		True	False
1	Michael was impatient for it to stop raining
2	Michael didn't even go up the hill to check because of the rain
3	They ate most of the berries they picked
4	They had very little fish to eat as they could not go out in the boat
5	Kensuke was still only painting tree pictures
6	The first picture of Michael's that K kept was the orang-utan one
7	As soon as the rains stopped they went fruit picking
8	Kikanbo only gave the binoculars back when K gave him a banana
9	Kensuke was as impatient for a ship to come as Michael
10	The killer men would kill the gibbons and take the young
11	As soon as Kensuke started calling the orang-utans came
12	Michael was reminded of the tale of the Pied Piper, the way Kensuke led the orang-utans to safety
13	Stella had to be held in case she ran out
14	Kikanbo knocked Kensuke over in his excitement at seeing him again		