Can you do that many jumps/ hops / bunny jumps? Which is the biggest/smallest number? Can you put them in order? How many of the same number can you find?	Using a pack of cards- sort them eg all the 2's 4's etc Play snap (for quick recognition of numbers) Order- Ace 1/11 If you don't have cards – can you make number cards or stones? Or just use things you have to practise counting. Can you find pairs of numbers that add up to 10? Eg 2+8, 3+7 Can you notice a pattern? Try using pegs – 4 green and 6 blue.	HOLIDAY S	HOLIDAY S
Phonics	Or ar ur Can you write some simple words with these sounds eg: for, star, fur etc and get your child to sound them out? Can they organise them into groups? Or Say a word and get them to write.	Ow oi Can you look in a book and see how many times you can spot these sounds. Can you try and read the word? (ow as in 'now', oi as in 'coin'). Can you make up a story using these words: cow, brown, frown, coin, point, soil? Look at some of the Alphablocks on BBC - see if you can spot the sounds and blend them https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/shows/alphablocks Tricky word of the Day- happy	Oo (as in look and boot) oa Can you make a list of words that have these sounds? Get the grown up or sibling to say the words. If it's an oo word stand up, if it's an oa word lie down. Try spotting words with oo and decide if they make the short sound (look) or the long sound (zoom) There will be some games with all the sounds we have revised this week on https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/ Ongoing: Recall key words learnt at school (flashcard word hunt etc – I, to, no, go, he, she, me, we, be, the, you, are, was, said) Word of the Day- from
Challenge	Designing an Easter Garden	Design an Easter egg. What could you use? Paper, playdough, plasticine or a real egg?	Can you make an Easter card? Who will you give or send it to? Can you sound out some of the words you will write inside?

Either drawing a design or making if available resources.
If you cut the top of a carrot and put it in water, it will sprout shoots that could look like trees.

Sing a song, sing a joyful song:
