

EASTER PROJECT: To make a papier-mâché / cardboard model of a river course from source to mouth.

Design and create a model of a river from its source to its mouth.

Remember to add in all the different features you would find along its course.

You can create other physical features that would be on the river bank such as factories or mills that might use the river.

Enjoy getting creative and impress your parents with your DT and art skills.